THERE ARE 2 PROPOSALS ON THE BALLOT.

PROPOSAL A: Special Millage For Police Services and General Fund	Shall the Village of Franklin be permitted to increase its authorized millage rate for a term of 4 years, 2012 through 2015, by up to 0.4 mills ($0.40 per $1,000) on the taxable value of real and personal property in the Village to provide funding for police services and partially restore the Village's General Fund balance? Required millage rollbacks have reduced the Village's charter-authorized general tax rate, from which police services are funded, from 3.5 mills to 2.7248 mills. If voters approve this proposal and if the Village decides to levy the full amount of the additional millage, an estimated $114,847 in additional revenue will be raised in the first year of levy, 2012. Do you approve this Proposal?
PROPOSAL B: Special Millage For Fire Protection Services	To restore the charter-authorized tax rate, shall the Village of Franklin be permitted to levy up to 0.5414 additional mills ($0.5414 per $1,000) on the taxable value of real and personal property in the Village to provide funding for fire protection services? Required millage rollbacks have reduced the Village's charter-authorized tax rate for fire protection services from 1.5 mills to 0.9586 mill. If voters approve this proposal and if the Village decides to levy the full amount of the additional millage, an estimated $155,446 in additional revenue will be raised in the first year of the levy, 2012. Do you approve this Proposal?
